A hundred spires in Prague The Czech capital from above

A bird's eye view of Prague

Are you not afraid of any heights? Come to see Prague from other horizons. To get the most beautiful panorama over the city, why not use its best view points!

Prague is known as a city of a 100 spires. Is this really true? Has Prague really 100 spires? This name came from the beginning of the 19th century, when the number of spires in Prague was 103. Nowadays Prague has over 500 spires.

This tour will take you to the top of the most famous ones:

Petrin Tower
Castle Tower
Charles Bridge Tower
Astronomical Clock Tower
And Power Tower.

An itinerary will be set according to the time available.

The meeting point of the tour will be upon arrangement and the trip will finish in the city centre, where you can find a lot of shops and restaurants.

The spectacular restaurant Zvonice is located on the 7th floor of the Jindriska tower. It is the only restaurant situated right over a bell frame.

There you can enjoy a view of the Wenceslas Square, Senovazne Square and as well a lovely panorama over Prague and it's spires.

The menu is covering a good range of salads, pasta, vegetarian, fish, and meat and poultry dishes.
