Venue: Maison de la Butte aux Cailles (Paris)

The beautiful Maison de la Butte aux Cailles is situated in one of the characteristic quarters of Paris but far away from the tourist paths.

Possibility to rent the house for banquets, seminars, small theatrical, wine tasting...or simply one supper or a cocktail in a warm atmosphere.

One of Paris' lesser-known neighbourhoods, the Butte aux Cailles district is a village-like oasis in Paris'. With its narrow cobblestone streets featuring quirky restaurants, cafes and boutiques, its art deco architectural heritage, and its throwback Paris ambiance, The Butte aux Cailles is definitely a place to visit if you're looking for something relatively uncharted.

Places of interest in the Butte aux Cailles neighbourhoods are Place Paul Verlaine, Alsatian Villa, and the Art-nouveau houses.

You will feel the welcoming atmosphere by your host in the house of Butte aux Cailles. Several events can be organized in this unique and unusual place in Paris. Cocktail parties, lunches and dinners around the swimming pool will enchant you. The organisation of seminars is also possible.

As an activity inside we suggest a wine tasting. An oenologist will introduce you to the different wines' and will explain how to approach them. For sure a tasting together with some canapés will remain an enjoyable moment.
